

A Unwrap correction improves every metricB

Reproduction is spatial and sharply selective

Panel A values are RETAINED AGGREGATE agreement statistics over 854,321 shared-domain pixels; paired per-pixel values were not retained, so no pixel-level scatter is shown and none is synthesised. Panel B is the fraction of each ascending zone overlapped by a descending-detected component. Agreement is moderate and spatially heterogeneous, not global.